Defer Action On Proposed Street Car Ordinances

Councilmen Appoint Committee to Arrange for Payment Grandview School.

A committee consisting of A. H. Hughes, president of the city school board, and C. Winkler, county superintendent of public instruction, Charles J. Mapel and Walter Clayton conferred with the city council Monday morning relative to the purchase of the city of the property known as the Grandview school. The purchase of two buildings and grounds, which together with improvements on the property, would cost the city a total of $12,000, was discussed, but no definite method of arranging the transaction was agreed upon. The city council will meet Tuesday afternoon in Mr. Hughes' office to arrange the transaction.

Street Car Ordinances. Consideration of four ordinances presented by Alvin H. Warren and Judge J. M. Goggin, representing the El Paso Electric Railway Co., seeking to define certain rights of the company in connection with the operation of its cars, took up the greater part of the session.

An ordinance specifically defining the agreement between the El Paso Electric Railway Co. with the El Paso Electric Railway Co. to use certain tracks was presented and the council favored the passage of such an ordinance. The present agreement is a verbal agreement approved by the city council and the representative of the company. An ordinance providing for the construction of curb on either side of the car tracks on Alameda avenue was favorably considered by the council. An article of the ordinance requiring construction of curb on East Boulevard was rejected.

CONGRESS TO RECONVENE. Washington, D. C., July 7.—Congress will reconvene tomorrow after week's Fourth of July recess.

Tax Commission Unable To Make Vocational Levy

Arizona Legislature Failed to Authorize Funds for School Work.

Phoenix, Ariz., July 7.—Failure on the part of the legislature to provide for a levy by the state for vocational education may reduce the annual available for this work to less than one-tenth of the amount asked for by the state board. This was learned today when members of the state tax commission pointed out that chapter 121 of the session laws of 1918, under which the vocational education fund was created, had expired.

CHERRIES ARE GROWN IN SACRAMENTO MOUNTAINS. Alameda, N. M., July 7.—"My experience during the past few years in raising sweet cherries in the Sacramento mountains shows that the mountain is adaptable to the growing of cherries and the cherry crop should be one of the main commercial crops of the mountains," said L. L. Lawson, an Alameda attorney. "About eight years ago Mr. Lawson acquired what is known as the Sugar herd ranch in upper La Paz canyon, a few miles northwest of Alameda. This is a fine specimen of the cherry country in the state. The fruit is of the best quality and the cherry crop has been successful."

Can't Find Basis For a Permanent Peace, Says Cook

President of Bible School It Is Up to America to Christianize Japan.

"If we win permanent peace, young America must respond to the call for carrying out the greater program of reconstruction and world evangelization before we can have international brotherhood," declared Dr. Cook, president of the Trinity Bible Training school Sunday night at Trinity Methodist church. "Our country's need of two and touched upon the urgent need of missionaries in foreign fields. The plan of the Trinity Bible Training school for the summer of 1919 is to send a team of workers in the missionary field."

Will Speak Tonight. Dr. Cook will address the New Mexico conference summer school, Tuesday evening at Trinity Methodist church on "The Christian and the New Spirit of Service." This evening will be followed by a social hour and a "Bible Quiz" on the Book of the Post-Bellum Program in Missouri and "Permanent Elements in the Progress of Civilization."

Go on Vacation. Rev. P. R. Kiefer, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church, left Monday for California to spend a month's vacation with relatives. During his absence, the pulpit at Trinity church will be supplied by Rev. C. W. Campbell, presiding elder on July 13 and July 20, and by Rev. R. O. Knepper, chairman of the home mission board on July 27.
